

Csongor Istvan Nagy, Szeged, Hungary

International maintenance matters in Hungary

The proposed paper presents two facets of the Hungarian experiences related to international maintenance matters. First, it briefly summarizes the Hungarian national rules and practice on maintenance, with special emphasis on cases where Hungarian courts took the international aspects into account when applying Hungarian law to cross-border cases. Second, it collects and presents the practical experiences of Hungary (the Hungarian Central Authority) in the field of international cooperation in maintenance matters.