We are delighted to present to you today

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Erik Jayme

University of Heidelberg

as our keynote speaker at the opening ceremony of the International Conference to be held in

Heidelberg from 5 to 8 March 2013.

Jayme was Professor of Law and former Director of the Institute for Foreign and International Private and Commercial Law of the University of Heidelberg, Germany (1983-2002). Before that he was Professor of Law and Co-Director of the Institute for International Law of the University of Munich (1974-1983) and Professor of Law at the University of Muenster (1973-1974). He has a Ph.D. in Law (Dr. jur.) from the University of Munich (1961) and an LLM from Berkeley (1966).

Prof. Jayme is member of the Académie Internationale de Droit Comparé, Paris/France (Académicien titulaire since 1987), the Institut de Droit International, Geneva/Switzerland (since 1981, President from 1997 to 1999), the Heidelberger Akademie der Wissenschaften (since 1989), the Istituto Lombardo, Milan/Italy (Foreign Member since 2000), the Accademia Nazionale dei Lincei, Rome/Italy (Foreign Member since 2001), the Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften, Vienna/Austria (Foreign Member since 2001), the Istituto Veneto di Scienze, Lettere ed Arti, Venice/Italy (2004), and the Koninklijke Nederlandse Akademie van Wetenschappen, Amsterdam/Netherlands (Foreign Member since 2005).

In 2004 Erik Jayme was elected Vice-President of the Curatorium of the Hague Académie de Droit International, succeeding the former UN General Secretary Prof. Boutros Boutros-Ghali.

Jayme's countless publications in the field of art and law span four languages and range from art historical reflections about Canova to art trade, art loan and cultural property protection law. For his academic work he was awarded honorary doctors from the Universities of Ferrara/Italy (1991), Budapest/Hungary (2000), Porto Allegre/Brazil (2003) and Montpellier/France (2003).

Prof Jayme will talk about the "Cultural dimension of maintenance from an international law perspective", with an emphasis on comparative analyses of different systems of maintenance law. He will analyse the differences between judicial and administrative based systems in their different forms.

We are very much looking forward to his lecture!
